AN Ancient ART

THE CRAFTING OF FINE RUGS BY SKILLED ARTISANS IS A TIMELESS TRADITION THAT CONTINUES TODAY.

While some works of art are purely decorative, there's an ancient tradition of creating art that is both beautiful and functional—this is the philosophy of hand woven rugs. Warm, polished and finely-crafted, traditional hand-knotted rugs continue to be made today as they have been for thousands of years. It can take a team of artisans up to a year to complete one rug — using the finest hand dyed wools and silks—tying up to 1,000 knots per square inch.

Feizy utilizes weavers in India, Turkey, Pakistan, Nepal and beyond to create their exclusive designs. For John Feizy, founder and CEO of the company, it's been a lifelong mission to expose people to the beauty of a vanished world while enabling them to incorporate these incredible pieces of art into their everyday living spaces. With hundreds of the highest-caliber museum-quality rugs, Feizy protects the tradition of this ancient art, while making fresh advances and setting new trends with stylish and fashion-forward designs.

Celebrating a rich heritage of fine craftsmanship, Feizy proudly preserves the legacy of a truly ancient and rare art form. Today with showrooms in New York, Las Vegas, Dallas, and High Point, they provide access to the world's finest rugs, often becoming prized family heirlooms handed down over generations.
